

Employment and Training Administration, Labor

§ 655.2

Usery, 531 F. 2d 305 (5th Cir. 1976); Florida Sugar Cane League, Inc. v. Usery, 531 F. 2d 299 (5th Cir. 1976), and the job benefits extended to any U.S. workers shall be at least those extended to the alien workers.

(b) Subparts D and E. Subparts D and E of this part set forth the process by which health care facilities can file attestations with the Department of Labor for the purpose of employing or otherwise using nonimmigrant registered nurses under H-1A visas.

(c) Subparts F and G. Subparts F and G of this part set forth the process by which employers can file attestations with the Department of Labor for the purpose of employing alien crewmembers in longshore work under D-visas and enforcement provisions relating thereto.

(d) Subparts H and I of this part. Subparts H and I of this part set forth the process by which employers can file with, and the requirements for obtaining approval from, the Department of Labor of labor condition applications necessary for the purpose of petitioning the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) of the Department of Homeland Security (formerly the Immigration and Naturalization Service or INS) for H-1B visas for aliens to be employed in specialty occupations or as fashion models of distinguished merit and ability, and the enforcement provisions relating thereto. With respect to H-1B1 visas for the temporary employment in specialty occupations of nonimmigrant professionals from countries with which the U.S. has entered into certain agreements identified in section 214(g)(8)(A) of the INA, subparts H and I set forth the process for an employer to file a labor attestation with the Department of Labor, the Department's approval procedures regarding these attestations, and enforcement positions related thereto.

(e) Subparts J and K of this part. Subparts J and K of this part set forth the process by which employers can file attestations with the Department of Labor for the purpose of employing nonimmigrant alien students on F-visas in off-campus employment and enforcement provisions relating thereto.

§ 655.00 Authority of the Regional Administrator under subparts A, B, and C.

Pursuant to the regulations under this part, temporary labor certification determinations under subparts A, B, and C of this part are ordinarily made by the Regional Administrator of an Employment and Training Administration region. The Director, however, may direct that certain types of applications or certain applications shall be handled by, and the determinations made by, the United States Employment Service (USES) in Washington, DC. In those cases the Regional Administrator will informally advise the employer or agent of the name of the official who will make determinations with respect to the application.
